New Business: INFORMATION ONLY:

1. Hold on all fundraising events except for the Duck Race, pending updated response from Health & Safety.
 - The Duck Race was approved by Health and Safety. We will incorporate all campuses by possibly live streaming the race. GBC clubs and organizations can be incorporated into this event. Will vote on a budget at March meeting.
2. Start thinking about nominations for 2022-23 Classified Council Executive Committee Elections in May (Term July-June).
 - Executive Committee will need to consult with Joe Micke on prior year nomination/election procedures.
3. Beginning with June meeting, Classified Council will be conducted using a new meeting platform.
 - Blue Jeans will be phased out in June. CC meetings will be held via Google Meet or Zoom.
4. NSHE Update.
 - In January Tasha was elected as NSHE Classified Council Scheduling Officer. Tasha attended the NSHE Classified Council web meeting on 2/17/22. An equity study statement is being drafted and Tasha will send this out when she receives it.

POSSIBLE ACTION ITEMS:

1. Discuss details of “Meet Your Classified Council”.

- Google Doc to gather information or pic they want to share
 - Cheyenne will create a Google Document to be emailed to new Classified staff with a few fun questions and to submit a photo to be in the Weekly Post.
 - Use small gift incentive to promote participation
 - No discussion
 - Put into Weekly Post, by department
 - Similar posts for the Weekly Post for “Meet your Ely, Pahrump, Winnemucca, Battle Mtn., Elko Staff”. Motion to approve “Meet your Classified Council”: Cindy Holt, Second Cheyenne Stocks. Motion passes unanimously.
2. Welcome of all new hires (Classified and Professional) with an email.
- Creation of template for email with welcome and GBC information
 - Grant-In-Aid information, Food Truck, provide names to CC officers to reach out to for information on GBC
 - Communicate with Department AA’s monthly to get names of new faculty and staff.
 - Cheyenne will send out an email to get input. Motion to approve “Welcome of all new hires with an email from CC”: Cheyenne Stocks, Second Shemayne Pitts. Motion passes unanimously.
