

Argentum Spring 2010

Mission

To provide the Great Basin College community—the Elko campus, branch campuses, and satellite centers—with a print venue for excellent artistic expression.

Submission Information

Eligibility

All Great Basin College students, faculty, and staff are eligible to submit written and visual work.

Submission Limits

There is no limit to how many pieces may be submitted by any one artist. Selection will be based on quality and originality.

Accepted Mediums

- ceramics
- design (graphic or architectural)
- drawing
- painting
- photography (both unenhanced and digitally altered)
- print making
- sculpture
- prose (fiction or non-fiction)

- poetry
- any medium that can be represented in print

Submission Reservations

Originals and hard copies will not be accepted.

Submission materials will not be returned.

For printing purposes, Argentum reserves the right to edit or alter any piece: 1) for grammar and length in the case of written work, or 2) for color and tone in the case of visual work.

Submission Procedure

All submissions must include a completed submission form with all the information—contact, submission, and declaration of originality/copyright agreement—and piece(s) as requested.

Any submissions that do not meet the qualifications listed below will be disqualified.
