"The library is the temple of learning, and learning has liberated more people than all the wars in history."

-Carl T. Rowan

National Library Week

will be observed April 10-16, 2016

with the theme,

"Libraries Transform."

First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association and libraries across the country each April.

It is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support.

All types of libraries - school, public, academic and special - participate.

Celebrations during National Library Week include: National Library Workers Day, celebrated the Tuesday of National Library Week (April 12, 2016), a day for library staff, users, administrators and Friends groups to recognize the valuable contributions made by all library workers; and National Bookmobile Day, celebrated the Wednesday of National Library Week (April 13, 2016), a day to recognize the contributions of our nation's bookmobiles and the dedicated professionals who make quality bookmobile outreach possible in their communities.

Poetry is the clear expression of mixed feelings.

W.H. Auden

National Poetry Month!

Come by the library and get a small "Poem for your Pocket"

And don't forget to sign up for a "poem a day" at poets.org!

Poetry is just the evidence of life. If your life is burning well, poetry is just the ash.

(Leonard Cohen)

"Poetry is the one place where people can speak their original human mind. It is the outlet for people to say in public what is known in private."

Allen Ginsberg

To be a poet is a condition, not a profession.

Robert Frost
