

Study Skills, Test Prep, & Time Management
Workshop for GBC Students February 3, 2016

The Academic Success Center's Ping Wang and the Library (Christina Park and Carrie Gaxiola) are going to host a workshop for our students on February 3rd in the library lab, MCML 211. Items to be reviewed are study methods that are proven to work, test preparation tips, and time management. If you remember, we hosted this on December 1, 2015 too. We will post the recorded presentation to our website shortly after Feb. 3rd.

Library will be open EARLIER now!

Beginning January 25th, the library will now be opening its doors at 7:30am.

We will still be open until 7:00pm too! This is for Monday through Thursday only, Friday we will be retaining the "regular" hours.

Please see below:

The library was invited to display materials from our collections to compliment the Craig Sheppard exhibit!

We have displayed nearly 70 books in 6 display cases! The books are from our General Collection, Special Collection Nevada, and Reference Materials. The books all focus on Western Culture: Cowboy Poetry, Will James, The American West, Nevada, and Western Art and Literature. (Pictures on back of newsletter)

Library Survey Results

Analysis takes some time, and we are still sifting through the feedback, however we have a summary available. If you would like to review it, please visit <http://www.gbcnv.edu/library/survey.html>

We are learning a lot and actually used some of the results when planning the library website design!

THANK YOU TO THOSE WHO COMPLETED THE SURVEY!

Your feedback is invaluable to us!
