IV. Public Comment

Information Only

-Vice President for Business Affairs, Sonja Sibert wanted to give everyone a reminder about how SGA does have funds budgeted for club activities, since we do assist in the clubs promoting and carrying out those activities. However, that amount is limited and for the spring semester, so we will want to keep that in mind as we move forward this semester because we may be seeing more requests coming us, such as graduation related ceremonies.

GBC Student Government Association Minutes
February 3rd, 2017

-Pat Anderson wanted to compliment Cristian since she thought he represented the students of Great Basin College exceedingly well. Sonja and Pat were at the Presidential Search Organizing Committee earlier this week and Cristian represented you all well, he was extremely well spoken and thought of and would like to thank you personally for the presentation that you did.

-Johna Dueck wanted thank Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs for taking time out of her schedule to attend our meeting today. He invited her to come to the meeting because he has some questions and concerns that he wanted to address and wanted her to be present to hear them.
