Great Basin College Continuing Education
Our Mission  Great Basin College Continuing Education provides lifelong learning and personal enrichment opportunities for rural Nevadans through diverse educational, cultural, career and workforce development courses, activities, and programs.

The majority of Continuing Education courses are not offered for credit and have no final grade assigned. Driver Education courses are graded pass/fail, and a certificate or transcript is issued to those who successfully complete the 30-hour course.

Fees  Fees are due and payable at the time of registration. You may be withdrawn from the course if no payment is made prior to the class starting date. Course fees vary in accordance with class length, materials, and other factors. Community Education courses receive no state funding and are supported entirely by student fees. No fee waivers are available for faculty or staff of Great Basin College.

Continuing Education Refund Policy
100% refund if class is cancelled by the college

- To cancel a registration, you must contact the Elko Continuing Education office by phone at 775.753.2231 or in person at least seven days prior to the start of class in order to receive a refund.
- No refund will be issued if the student withdraws fewer than seven days prior to the start of class.
- All refunds of credit card payments will be issued to the same credit card as the original payment. If your card has expired, account closed, etc. you must notify us at the time of cancellation and you will be refunded by check. No cash refunds will be given. Please allow up to 30 days for processing of all credit card and check refunds.
- Continuing Education will retain $5.00 of the course fee upon withdrawal from a course by student.

Blogging for Fun and Profit II:
Building (and Maintaining) Your Best Blog

Do you enjoy meeting new people and interacting with them about a hobby, special interest, perspective or question you all share? Have you tried blogging but lost interest, couldn’t find the time, or ran out of things to say? Then “Blogging for Fun and Profit: Building (and Maintaining) Your Best Blog” is for you. At the completion of this two-hour course, you will know how to produce and maintain a variety of rich, engaging content for your blog. With so much information available to all of us these days, it can be difficult knowing what to say and how to say it effectively. We all know it’s not enough to simply post to our blogs and expect people to read it. How do we produce content so people want to read it and share it with others?

Blogging effectively is about creating (and curating) content that’s full of variety, regularity, and substance. In order to do that, bloggers need tools for building (and maintaining) an open dialogue with followers. Learn how to create the best posts while avoiding common pitfalls that lead to burn-out. Enroll in this class and publish engaging, interactive content today!

Paralegal Program
Informational Meeting

Do you want to find out more about becoming a paralegal? Plan to attend the 2017-18 Paralegal Program Informational Meeting. Instructor Zane Negrych, JD will talk about the curriculum and answer questions. He will show students the books for the fall semester, and Continuing Education will be on hand to help you enroll for classes. Scholarship information may also be available.

Our paralegal studies certificate is comprised of ten classes, five in the fall semester and five in the spring semester. Paralegals serve as a vital link between the law firm and its clients, the office of opposing counsel, and the court system. They do just about everything an attorney does except give legal advice, set fees, and represent clients in court.

One of the most attractive aspects of the paralegal profession is the range of potential employment opportunities. With your paralegal certificate, you may work for:

- Private law firms
- Government agencies
- Corporations
- Nonprofit organizations
- The court system
- Insurance companies
- Bank trust departments

INSTRUCTOR SPOTLIGHT

ZANE NEGRYCH, J.D.  Zane has been a practicing attorney for twenty years. His lengthy experience as a general practice lawyer and staff attorney for Elko County District Judges has provided him with unique and valuable insight into the operations of both private and public law offices. While residing in California, he was frequently invited to serve as a guest lecturer and educational panel member for the School of Law at Santa Clara University.

He has taught the law, trial practice and procedures, and law office management skills to both law school students and paralegal students throughout the entire course of his career. He is experienced in both civil and criminal law, as well as, appellate practice. He has successfully presented constitutional arguments before the California Supreme Court, and has been recognized by California and Nevada Judges as a uniquely talented and personable attorney. Zane and his wife moved to Elko County to raise their young children in a more outdoor environment.
