GREAT BASIN COLLEGE

Art Gallery
PRESENTS

One is Silver, the Other is Gold: Celebrating 25 Years of Nevada Folklife Apprenticeships
February 9 — April 3, 2015

and

Traditions Making: The Contemporary Screen Prints of Jack Malotte
and Gourds by Leah Brady
February 9 — April 16, 2015

Leonard Center for Student Life
1500 College Parkway
Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

EXHIBIT RECEPTION
March 5, 2015
5-7 p.m.

Organized by the Nevada Arts Council, “One is Silver, the Other is Gold: Celebrating 25 Years of Nevada Folklife Apprenticeships” is one of the traveling exhibits in the Nevada Touring Initiative – Traveling Exhibition Program, and is funded by the National Endowment for the Arts and the Nevada State Legislature. The Nevada Arts Council is a division of the Nevada Department of Tourism & Cultural Affairs. The exhibit has also been selected to be a Nevada Sesquicentennial (Nevada 150) Program and Exhibit. For more information about Nevada 150, please visit: nevada150.org.