NON-DEGREE STUDENTS

Non-Degree Students

GBC opens its doors to any adult who can profit from instruction. Several hundred non-degree students study in credit and non-credit classes each semester.

As a non-degree student, you may take classes for credit or choose to audit classes for personal enrichment. Many non-degree students eventually discover that they have completed enough credits for GBC's Associate of General Studies degree, which is described at <https://www.gbcnv.edu/catalog/current/programs/arts-sciences/genstu-ags.html>.
