- HIST 489B The Silk Roads 3 Credits
What was the 'Silk Road'? How did it contribute to the foundations of our global civilization? And why is China trying to revive it in the twenty-first century? This course addresses these questions by approaching world history from the East. Made up of several overland routes and sea-lanes, the Silk Roads defined and redefined the global landscape in wave after wave of transformation for more than a thousand years. The goods, religions, technologies, diseases, and political innovations that spread along the Silk Roads have left enduring imprints on diverse societies from China, Mongolia, and India, to the Middle East, Europe, and beyond. And now, with China rising again on the global stage, the history of the Silk Roads can do more than simply deepen our understanding of the past and present; it is a history that may also give us glimpses into the future. Prerequisite: Must have completed 40 or more credits and have completed (ENG 102 or ENG 333) and (MATH 120 or MATH 124 or MATH 126E or higher or AMS 310 or STAT 152).
