POSSIBLE ACTION ITEMS:

1. Discuss Duck Race Event Planning for Centers.
 - Videographer from Media Center for live streaming to Centers.
 - Ely and Pahrump will coordinate food for their Centers.
2. General Duck Race Planning, set dates?
 - Discussion of May 4th date barriers (i.e., large focus on live Graduation, lack of time to market) and other date ideas (having the race on the same date as the End of Year BBQ) resulted in rescheduling the Race until the Week of May 23rd, Wednesday or Thursday. Cheyenne will contact Tony in Buildings and Grounds for input on this timeframe.
 - Cheyenne will get permission from Sonja and contact “Food Truck Hub” for availability during the Race.

- Previous years Duck Race formats have been to conduct the races in heats with 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners (medals), duck purchase price of $20 each. The winners will race in a finale race for a Grand Prize. Or charge $5 to purchase a duck and then charge a $10 fee for entering each heat. A Department Race Prize, a Grand Prize and a Best Costume prize have been included.
 - Permanent markers/paint only for duck decorations. Start at the bridge by Berg Hall, Finish Line is before the Fountain.
 - Current inventory is: 23 ducks, 5 gold metals, 2 silver metals. We will need to purchase 2-3 dozen more ducks and various prize medals, other prizes as determined by our race format. We will need fishing nets, or dows to collect the ducks.
 - Tasha will get this in the Weekly Post and create post cards for mailboxes.
3. Send out “Getting to Know You” and “Meet the Staff” emails.
- Cindy sent out the “Getting to Know You” email to new classified staff Joey Arreygue. We can begin sending out to all new hires after getting any additional input.
 - “Meet the Staff” google spreadsheet needs GBC Center’s input for completion of staff members.
 - “Getting to Know You” google form needs pictures and info added, Classified Council Executive Committee will be first to go out, then as pictures and info are added more will be sent out.
