Payments authorized hereunder include amounts paid and expenses incurred (including attorneys' fees) in satisfaction of any liability or penalty or in settling any action or threatened action, but in no event shall this Article permit payment of any amount, payment of which would give rise to any liability for taxes or penalties under Chapter 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the Foundation is at such time a private foundation.

The Board of Trustees shall also authorize the purchase of insurance on behalf of any director, officer, employee, or other agent against any liability incurred by him which arises out of such person's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the Foundation would have the power to indemnify the person against that liability under law.

Section 1. Non-Disclosure. No member of the Board of Trustees, staff, or Board committee shall disclose to third persons, without the prior approval of the Board of Trustees, any confidential information which may have become known to the Trustee, staff, or committee member, during the time of service to the Foundation. As used herein, the term "donor" includes any current or prospective donors of the Foundation. As used herein, the term "confidential information" means any information pertaining to:

- (a) Names, addresses, financial information, amount of donations, and terms of payment relating to any donor, save and except to the extent the donor authorizes disclosure;
- (b) Matters pertaining to information of a sensitive or confidential nature relating to any donor, employee, officer, Trustee or agent of the Foundation;
- (c) Contract considerations and negotiations wherein the Foundation is an interested party; and
- (d) Settlement and management of legal disputes involving the Foundation.

Section 2. Communications. Authorized communication of any confidential information shall be by or at the direction of the Chair of the Board of Trustees, in consultation with the Director or Executive Committee and in accordance with the Nevada Open Meeting Law requirements as defined by Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 241.

Section 3. Trustees, employees, or committee members violating these confidentiality provisions shall be subject to removal from their position by action of the Board of Trustees, as well as other legal remedies of the Foundation.

Section 4. Preserving the confidentiality of Foundation confidential donor information is paramount to the effectiveness of the Foundation in carrying out its purposes. Public or other indiscriminate disclosure of the Foundation's confidential donor information could violate the need for discretion and confidentiality inherent in the fundraising mission of the Foundation and could irreparably damage the Foundation's relationship with past and current contributors, and negatively impact on its ability to develop new donors. Therefore, the Foundation's consent to treat any Foundation confidential donor information that may be disclosed hereunder or otherwise to the College, as a public record, is specifically denied.
