

Curriculum and Articulation Committee
Written Report for Faculty Senate
October 17, 2014

The Curriculum and Articulation Committee met on Monday, October 6, 2014.

Information items:

- CRJ 235, 251, 286, 289, 290, 299, 101, 102, 121B, 198, 208 and 225

The committee approved a request by Rick Mackey to delete CRJ 235, 251, 286, 289, 290, 299, 101, 102, 121B, 198, 208 and 225 from the Common Course Numbering Database as courses offered at GBC. These course either have not been offered or have not been offered in more than five years. There are no plans to offer these courses in the future.

- INT Seminars and Special Topics

The committee will no longer require the submission of syllabi for new INT seminars or special topics.

- Reactivation of Courses

The committee will require the submission of syllabi and course articulation forms for the reactivation of courses that have been formally deactivated and have not been taught for a period of more than five years.